April Update: winners and next year sales

The Easter break impacted our April draw for the 100 Club, which was made later in the month at the April PTA Meeting by Mr Askew.

The winner was Rachel Chocian with Number 9!

It is also nearly that time of year when we will be renewing the 100 Club for the next academic year. For those that are already in the club you will be able to renew your number for next year. Please look out soon for an email from school on how to do this.

Remaining numbers will then go on sale, available to all at Sports Day and then online through June and July.

SPORTS DAY 2026 – Friday 22nd May

This year we will be supporting Sports Day with our fabulous BURGERS AND HOT DOGS – available on the day, along with other refreshments.

We are looking for items for 2 tombola's – a Student Tombola of suitable items and a Parent Tombola which will be suitable items including alcohol. If you can donate any items / bottles then please bring them to Reception by Wednesday 20th May. Please bring some cash to Sports Day so you can participate.

Jen Loten our fabulous PTA Secretary will sadly be leaving the PTA later this year as her son Jasper moves on from the school post 6th Form. We are looking for someone to fill this important post – Support the Chair and Treasurer by organising paperwork, meetings, and smooth administration Record accurate minutes during meetings, capturing decisions, actions, and follow-up responsibilities.
